Lunch-n-Learn 4/22/2015

One of the most appreciated values from participating at PCC events is the networking. That was especially true at our Lunch-n-Learn on April 22 at Maggiano's Cumberland. (The food was great too!) Topics explored included: Parcels, National Postal Forum ROI, USPS 2015 price change, USPS Atlanta District service performance and changes, and announcement of the fun in store at the 25th Annual Golf Outing. Bill Skinner with Amplifii shared the details with the audience, and as you can see from this picture, his news was very well received. Be sure to go to <http://www.gapcc.net/> often for all the news and updates.

Discussing industry news and pending changes; meeting new people, and catching up with long-time business partners on April 22

A Message from the Board— By Wanda Senne, World Marketing and Industry Co-Chair

One of the most fun and appreciated events from last year was our BBQ and plant tour at North Metro. Because of the success, we are repeating the concept this year. The education topic will be a review of the USPS' online self-paced study course: Mailpiece Design Professional. We will show you how you and your team can access the materials, where the final exam is located, and how to get your MDA certification. The BBQ will be provided by Ebony and Ivory, back by popular demand!

A special alert for the 25th ANNUAL GOLF OUTING! Bill Skinner, Amplifii along with the GAPCC team have an outstanding event in store for you this year. The National Postal Forum is just around the corner May 16—20 in Anaheim CA. I know this year's forum will generate many new connections, and ideas for events and educational topics we will share with you.

If you have found value at one of the GAPCC events, how about bringing someone new along with you? We have room for more!

For more information about the GAPCC, and our upcoming events, please go to gapcc.net.

National PCC week provides local PCC audiences (small to medium sized businesses, nonprofits, colleges/universities, and mail service providers) the opportunity to hear and interact with USPS officers and executives. National PCC Week: September 21-25, 2015.

Your GAPCC's event this year is on Wednesday, September 23 at the Holiday Inn Perimeter. We have a lot of excitement planned for this year's event.

Do you know someone who should be participating in the GAPCC events? If you do, please invite them to come with you, and add their contact information on the GAPCC's website so they can get all the latest updates and news related to the USPS.

Thank you for your business, and I look forward to seeing you.

SAVE THE DATE!
